NOTES

1. In-house managers and CEO's are invited to register and can attend all sessions and events but not the Special General Meeting. Please pass a copy of this registration form to others if you wish them to attend. Those attendees pay the Full Delegate Package Rate.
2. Non-member patent and trade marks attorneys who are eligible to apply to become a FICPI member (see Note 5 for eligibility criteria) are invited on a one-time only basis to register at the specially discounted non-member rate (see above) and can attend all sessions and events, but not the Annual General Meeting UNLESS membership is approved before then. Please pass a copy of this registration form to any non-member attorneys who you believe may wish to attend on this basis.
3. The Full day or half day conference options cannot be combined. The full day packages includes lunch and evening dinner (off-site), while the half day package includes lunch (off-site)
4. Booking and payment for accommodation is the delegate's responsibility and the Accommodation Booking should be made via this link Crowne Plaza. If you call the hotel - mention you are booking with FICPI Australia. Room rate $235 including breakfast and best booked before 23 July 2018. Delegates and attendees should note the hotels' cancellation policy and transaction fee/s. Please book as soon as possible, noting that bookings are available on a first come first served basis. The Crown Plaza rack room rate may apply thereafter.
5. The registration fees do not include transport to and from your home city, accommodation, nor any personal room expenses. A tax invoice from FICPI Australia will be issued following registration most likely following the conference but if required sooner please ask.
6. Eligibility to becoming an ordinary member of FICPI Australia under Article 5 of the Articles of Association is briefly summarised below, please speak to the Secretary or a Council member if you wish to explore this step further, however a prospective member will be a person:
 - in independent practice (e.g. see 4th dot point) as a Patent Attorney in Australia or as a Trade Marks Attorney in Australia
 - have their primary endeavour as a patent attorney or as a trade marks attorney
 - have at least 5 years experience as a patent attorney or trade marks attorney since registrations as such in Australia or overseas
 - not practise only on behalf of one client, or an affiliated group of clients, to the exclusion of other clients

Please note that under the amendments made to our Articles of Association I, all patent attorneys in private practice for at least 5 years and trade marks attorneys for a similar period of time, subject to the additional conditions as specified above, are eligible to become members of FICP Australia.
